The year 1907-8 has been marked by no particular features. The routine work has been carried on by the librarian and trustees with satisfactory results. The library has been open during the usual hours and the use made by the patrons shows a decided improvement.

During the year the books have been re-classified and the Dewey decimal system adopted. This system, invented in 1872 by Melvil Dewey of the New York State Library, has been in use for many years and has been adopted by several libraries in this State. We have combined with this system the Cutter author marks, which enable us to shelve the books in alphabetical order, and the results have well repaid the labor involved in making the change. Many of our patrons have commented most favorably on this new feature of our library. The re-writing of the card catalog which includes these changes is in progress and will doubtless be completed by the close of the coming year.

Another improvement in the library is an additional bookcase in which have been placed the later books, an arrangement which has proved a great source of convenience both to the patrons and the librarian. These new books cover a wide range of reading, and the trustees desire to call attention to the following volumes added during the past year. On the Great American Plateau, Prudden ; The Training of the Human Plant, Burbank ; The Efficient Life, Gulick ; Part of a Man's Life, Higginson ; The Pleasures of Life, Lubbock ; Japan : An Interpretation, Hearn ; Journal, Amiel ; The Girlhood of Shakespeare's Heroines, Clarke ; A Belle of the Fifties, Sterling ; Story of My Childhood, Barton ; The Long Day ; Our Native Birds, Lange ; Theodore Roosevelt ; The Boy and the Man, Morgan. We earnestly request the users of the library to avail themselves of this good reading.

We desire to bring to your notice the treatment of the books in the homes of our people. The life of the volumes depends for the most part upon the care they receive, and we request the readers to notice the rules and regulations placed inside the front covers of the books.

The library has received a legacy of $500 from the estate of Thomas P. Salter for the general use of the library. The amount does not show in the treasurer's report, as the sum was not available at the close of the year.

REPORT OF

Superintendent of Schools.

To the School Board of Greenland :

I have the pleasure of submitting to you my first annual report which is the third in the series of superintendent's reports.

Unfortunately this report can cover only a short period, a little more than the fall term.

The schools have made very satisfactory progress during this time. The primary school is doing excellent work. Everything indicates a very successful year for this school.

Good work was done in the grammar school during the fall term, but unfortunately the teacher was taken sick when it came time to open the school for the winter term. An unsuccessful effort was made to secure an experienced Normal graduate to take the school.

It is doubtful if there ever was a time in the history of our schools when officials have found so much difficulty in securing good teachers as they have the past year. It is unfortunate for the schools that so many changes have to be made during the year.

I believe in the future it will be better, instead of laying so much stress upon getting teachers with experience even if their educational training is a little short, to get teachers with a greater breadth of education and with only practice training. To put into our schools good, bright Normal school graduates with only their practice training and knowledge of educational principles will be far better than to put in teachers with only High school or academy training even with several years experience. The Normal trained teacher as a usual thing, has a greater fund of knowledge to draw upon. She has a bigger and broader outlook of school-work, knows more about educational principles, the order of the development of the mind and methods and devices in use. Having this knowledge she can understand and co-operate more readily with the Superintendent.

Further, such a teacher is ambitious and will do her best to be a success. Of the two conditions, give me a bright Normal graduate and there will be better work done in our schools.

There is a great need of supplementary reading in both schools. The old way of having one reader for each grade and droning away in that for at least a year, has for some time been relegated to the by-gones. Each grade from the first to fifth inclusive ought to have, at least, two regular readers with some other supplementary work. Above the fifth the reading should be historical, geographical, biographical and literary.

A move in the right direction was made when many of the old and much worn books were replaced by new ones. It is almost a sin to put old, badly worn and dirty books into the hands of the children. They like good, clean books and will do better work and take more interest if they have them.

Steps ought to be taken to prevent disturbances on grammar school grounds and about the building during school hours. Many times these disturbances have been particularly annoying to the teacher. Kicking foot-ball into the ante-room and against the building, hooting and yelling, swearing and smoking outside is not conducive to good work by those in the school room.

Such things ought not to be allowed for one moment. Who ever has the right of power to control the grounds, whether School Board or Selectmen, should see to it that it is stopped.

Arrangements have been made by me with Mr. Silver, superintendent of the Portsmouth schools, to admit scholars from your eighth grade to the Portsmouth High school, upon my certificate.

Now parents and pupils must understand that this does not mean that admission to the High school is going to be any easier than formerly. Such will not be the case. It does mean that scholars who have done good, faithful work and are well qualified may be admitted by your superintendent's certificate without an examination.

One thing must be firmly borne in mind by all concerned, and that is this,—I will not certificate any scholar whom I do not honestly believe to be qualified.

I have made thirty-eight visits to your schools beside other times when I have been to your town upon school business outside of regular school hours.

I feel I have missed a great deal in not becoming acquainted with more of the parents. Although I have been in and out of your town many times since last fall, yet I have met only a very few.

I want to thank the Board for its loyal support.

Very respectfully,

A. W. SMALL.
